The 1st Turn of Game

Usually begins with the Dawn Phase; skip the Night Phase. The first Night Phase happens at the end of the First Day's last turn.

A) Night Phase

- After the last* turn of day, all battalions have Gone to Ground or when both players agree, proceed to the night phase.
*Generally, there will be 10 turns in May-July, 9 turns in November-January, the day's fighting ends after 8 turns and 9 turns in February-April & August-October.
- Move FUP up to C Ops if road is clear of the enemy (no enemy stands within 2" of the road).
- Flip Suppressed stands.
- Roll for replacements. At nightfall, roll for each destroyed stand based on battalion's situation & if you roll score indicated it is returned to within 12" of FUP.

Replacements	Supply State
	Situation	Poor	Inferior	Average	Superior
Isolated 36+'' away or no route to C Ops	-1*	-1*	-1*	-1*	-1*
Separated >12'' to <36'' to C Ops	-	-	19+	18+	17+
OK within 12'' of C Ops	19+	18+	17+	16+	15+
In reserve (off table)	15+	11+	9+	7+	3+

*isolated cannot trace any line of communications without coming within 2" of enemy stands; no roll for replacements & 1 stand destroyed (player's choice).

Attached units may not be replaced. If all Bn's stands destroyed, Bn goes into automatic reserve & thus available to roll for replacements at reserve rate after full day's wait. Since the replacements have been "rushed" into their companies, they are one morale grade lower than originally.

- Withdraw any units (including just a battalion's attachments) by redeploying from the table to reserve, attacker first then defender.

- Units still on table may change formation.
- Units in reserve may be attached and detached, attacker first. Commonwealth attachments must stay with home brigade.
- Both sides replenish artillery supply.
- Proceed to Dawn Phase.

B) Dawn Phase

- Players note which artillery templates will be Pre-planned (write on hidden map with turn # of each), Registered (write on hidden map but no turn #) & On-call (keep in lid).
- Roll for weather (see scenario)
- Attacker deploys units from reserve (Step 1)
- Defender deploys units from reserve (Step 1)
- Scenario's 1st player chooses to pass or proceed to Day Turn
- If 1st player passes, 2nd chooses to pass or proceed. If passing continues thru all 10 turns, proceed to night phase.
- Once a side chooses to proceed, he activates units (see Step 2) & then the other side activates his.
- When proceeding the sighting distances increase by turn. Roll a die at the beginning of the 3rd turn

Turn	Visibility Enemy in open.
	1st Player	2nd Player
1	3"	3"
2	6"	6"
3 if odd rolled	6"	12"
3 if even rolled	12"	12"

Enemy in cover sighted when you moving to 1" away.

C) Turn Sequence

Start with Step 1 on 1st page.

Unit Type Capabilities

Firers, must be in front rank*:

Infantry .5x1.5" Can move into close combat with all but Armor (even if has attached armor). Each infantry battalion may attach stands below, maximum each of 1 HQ and 1 Hvy Wpns + 2 others: AT, Field Gun or tank, for a maximum of 4 attachments. *May also indirect fire up to 8" over obstacle (hits as if at 8" range even if closer) & gets Hvy Wpns mod.

Armor 1x1.5" One stand may be attached to Infantry battalion or 2+ Armor may act as own battalion. May not close combat other Armor.

Anti Tank 1x1" Gives a close combat bonus. Unlimbers instantly to fire (free with Fire action like Heavy Weapons), but then limits movement of battalion to 1" maximum until an action is spent to limber the AT Gun.

Field Gun .75x1" Like anti tank gun but with barrage template. When unlimbered limits movement.

May Not Fire and cannot be fired at:

Heavy Weapons .75x.75" Itself does not fire. Sets up instantly to add optional +2 bonus to all infantry stands' fire in the battalion. Once set up, then limits movement of battalion to 1" maximum until an action is spent to dismantle the heavy weapons. Rear rank okay for mod.

HQ large stand 1x.75" with a jeep. Provides bonuses to action roll for battalion it is attached to & rally to removes suppression from stands. Rear rank okay for modifier. No other effects, moves with battalion. One HQ per battle-group which is a brigade for British; regiment for others. British regiments are equivalent to battalions.

Bn HQ small stand .75x.75" No effects just a status marker with a single figure for infantry or small vehicle.

Both HQ's above serve as a marker by sliding unit ID up to mark the number of actions rolled, one in the example: # Actions ... & Activation state: Inactive, Activated, Gone to Ground.

Transport .75x.5" Each above stand can have its own transport. Place in front of stand carried/towed while loaded/moving. While loaded, whatever vehicles suffers, passengers & towed guns also suffer. May unload for free. Once unloaded, remove from table until option to reload at nightfall. Exceptions: AT guns may spend an action and remount reappearing vehicles; half-tracks can fire and linger while unloaded.

C Ops (Center of Operations) 1x1" Can only move 12"/turn along friendly road or board edge. Represents the Division's general, staff, and communications officers. Provides morale and replacement die roll bonuses to nearby units. If enemy moves adjacent, is destroyed and returns on board edge at dawn. Division lose 10 Activation Points & all its battalions be considered isolated in upcoming night phase.

FUP (Forming Up Place) 2x2" Immobile by day but moves adjacent to C Ops' location during Night Phase. Staging area from which reserves may deploy in or up to 12" away at a cost of no Action Points if dawn or 1 if a day turn. Must be able to trace line of supply to function.

means Barrage cannot suppress

Choose Action

Actions "All" in battalion must participate in:

Change Formation: Center unit stays stationary (may not engage in any other action) and rest move up to maximum allowed to new formation type • Facing may also be altered at this time • A battalion's formation must be either: March (column: IIII), Assault (two ranks: ==) or Defensive (line: ---) formation. Road March, a battalion is considered in March formation but is end to end on the road (---), looks like Defensive but stands must touch); maximum move of 12" when moving by road to defensive formation, for any stand • May not contact enemy as the result of a formation change • Only front stands may fire direct (if 2nd rank fires indirect then must be at 8" range regardless of actual distance.

Move: Maintaining formation, move stand that must move furthest. Move at rate of slowest. Stand's movement rate is determined by its type/carrier, formation, and terrain. Note when Battalion's stands all must versus some may participate in an action (and if latter, other stands may perform different actions). ("good going", "bad going", dirt road or paved road). If any suppressed, all must move as if Bad Going. Mounted infantry can dismount at any time.

Deploy A Reserve Battalion's stands may appear within 12" of FUP or road from friendly board edge which causes hits if visible or hidden enemy within 12".

Actions "Some" in battalion may participate in:

Dismantle or Limbering for movement in a later action. AT/Field gun gets its transport back.

Fire If hit but not destroyed, target is suppressed (flip disk). All stands fire independently but all shots at a target are fired at once. Stands can fire in all directions, but suffers a penalty for firing outside of their forward 180° arc. Unless if Indirect Fire, stand must establish Line of Sight to its target. Visibility rules limit sighting, due to distance, terrain, weather, and time of day. Stands under an artillery template & in close combat cannot be fired upon or fire out.

Rally Roll to remove stand's suppression see Step 5C.

Order of Actions 1) PAY BACK EARLIER: Units which previously deployed from reserve or conducted opportunity fire, even though those events don't occur during the Action Phase, must pay Action Points for those previous Actions at this time. If battalion had 2 actions to spend, the actions taken must be repaid as the 1st action before spending the 2nd action. 2) 1ST & 2ND ACTIONS: If one battalion has only 1 action and another has 2 actions, then all 1st actions must be completed before the battalion with 2 actions can spend its 2nd action.

Misc Markers Elimination you must mark them rather than just remove the stands, because they are counted in Morale step; SMG battalion; Engineer stand; Flip to red disk side to show unlimbered/set-up weapons; Unit ID chit example B3=Battalion 3 of Regiment B; Action taken.
